VICISSITUDE.

THE bosom last evening that throbb'd with delight,
This morning was swelling with sorrow;
And the eyes that are sparkling with pleasure to-night,
May be moistened with tears on the morrow.
Oh! why should we suffer life's fugitive cares,
In our weakness to triumph and build on our fears,
Let us rather endure than encourage such guests,
Nor provide them a welcome or home in our breasts,
But enjoy every moment of life as we ought,
Nor devote to the past or the future a thought.

While some assume state, and distinctions desire,
And others accumulate riches;
While some, heirs-apparent of glory, aspire
In her temple to wm themselves niches.
What is greatness, but bubbles that burst as we gaze,
And glory, a sun-beam on water that plays,
And wealth, cavern drops turning hearts into stone—
Let us rest all our bliss in the feelings alone;
And all that is earthly of happiness prove,
Are the warm heart of friendship and bright eyes of love.

If the joys, then, of life dwell in cordials like these,
While beauty and youth hand the chalice:
Drain, care-harrassed mortals the draught to the lees,
And deride fortune's impotent malice.
Oh! now e're experience the distant unshrouds,
While the rainbow of hope rears its arch in the clouds,
While the hour-glass of time only sheds golden sands,
And fancy her butterfly pinions expands;
Let us seize upon pleasure before it has past
And prolong our elysian hours to the last.

[BY AUTHORITY.]

An Act to amend the act, entitled "an act directing the mode of selling unseated lands for taxes, and for other purposes."

Sect. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the treasurers of the several counties in this commonwealth, shall be, and they are hereby respectively authorised and directed, to commence on the 2d Monday in June, in the year 1816, and at the expiration of every two years thereafter, and adjourn from day to day if it shall be found necessary so to do, and make public sale of the whole or any part of such tracts of unseated lands, situate in the proper county, as will pay the arrearage of the taxes, any part of which shall then have remained due and unpaid for the space of one year before, together with all costs necessarily accruing by reason of such delinquency, and to make and execute a deed or deeds, in fee simple, in the manner directed by the act to which this is a further supplement; and it shall be the duty of the said county treasurer, to give at least 60 days notice of the time and place of such sales, the township or townships in which the said tracts of land are respectively situated, the number of acres contained in each tract, and the names of the warrantees or owners thereof, and the sums due upon each tract for taxes, at least 4 times in one daily newspaper in the city of Philadelphia, and in one other newspaper in or nearest to the county where such lands lie, under the penalty of $50, in each and every case, to be recovered by the owner or owners of the land sold as aforesaid, as debts of like amount are by law recoverable, but the neglect of such treasurer to cause the said publications to be made, shall not in any case, invalidate any sale made in pursuance of the provisions of this act.

Sect. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this act, when any treasurer who shall have made sale of unseated lands as aforesaid, shall die or be removed from office, before any deed or deeds are executed, by him to the purchaser or purchasers, then, and in every such case, it shall be the duty of the treasurer for the time being, to perfect such title and execute a deed or deeds to the purchaser or purchasers, and they are hereby empowered and required upon the full discharge and payment of the money or price for which the said lands were sold, with such cost and charges as remain unpaid to the former treasurer, to make, execute or acknowledge any deed or deeds, and to perform and do all other matters and things that by the former treasurer might, could or ought to have been performed or done, which, when done, shall be held and adjudged as effectual in law as if the title had been completed by the former treasurer.

Sect. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the purchasers at treasurers' sales, as soon as any deed or deeds shall have been tendered, after the deeds are acknowledged, in the court of common pleas of the proper county by the treasurer who made the sale, or his successor, as the case may be, to pay to the treasurer the amount of the purchase money or such part thereof as shall be necessary to pay off the taxes and costs, and also to pay in addition, the sum of $1 for the use of the prothonotary for entering the acknowledgement of the deed: and in case the amount is not forthwith paid, it is hereby declared to be the duty of the treasurer to bring an action of debt, in the name of the proper county, for the same, in such courts as debts of equal amount are by law recoverable, and when judgement is obtained there shall be no stay of execution, nor shall it be competent for the defendant in such suit, to give in evidence, any irregularity in the assessments or proceedings of the commissioners or treasurer, touching any sale made in pursuance of this act.

Sect. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the owner or owners of lands sold as aforesaid, shall make or cause to be made, within two years after such sale, an offer or legal tender of the amount of the taxes for which the said lands were sold, and the costs, together with the additional sum of 25 per cent. on the same, to the county treasurer who is hereby authorised and required to receive and receipt for the same, and to pay it over to the said purchaser on demand, and if it shall be refused by the said treasurer, or in case the owner or owners of lands so sold, shall have paid the taxes due on them, previously to the sale, then, and in either of these cases, said owner or owners shall be entitled to recover the same by due course of law, but in no other case and on no other plea, shall an action be sustained, and it is hereby declared that so much of the act to which this is a supplement, as requires notice of the taxes being due and sale thereon to be given in certain public newspapers, is repealed, and that no alledged irregularity in the assessment, or in the process or otherwise, shall be construed or taken to affect the title of the purchaser, but the same shall be declared to be good and legal: Provided, That where the owner or owners of land sold as aforesaid, shall at the time of sale, be an orphan or orphans; or insane, and residing within the U. S. two years after such disability is removed shall be allowed such person or persons, their heirs or legal representatives, to bring their suit or action for the recovery, but where the recovery is affected in such cases, the value of the improvements made on the land so sold after the sale thereof, shall be ascertained by the jury, trying the action for recovery, and paid by the person or persons recovering the same, before he, she or they, shall obtain possession of the lands so recovered.

Sect. 5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any tract of unseated land, hereafter to be sold for taxes due at this time, or which shall hereafter be imposed, shall not have bidden for it a sum equal to the whole amount of taxes for which it shall have been advertised, and the costs accrued, then, and in that case, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the proper county or any of them, to bid off the same, and a deed shall thereupon be made by the treasurer to the commissioners for the time being, and to their successors in office, to and for the use of the proper county, and it shall be the duty of the commissioners to provide a book, wherein shall be entered the name of the person as whose estate the same shall have been sold, the quantity of land, and the amount of taxes it was sold for, and every such tract of land shall not thereafter, so long as the same shall remain the property of the county, be charged in the duplicate of the proper collector: but for 5 years next following such sale, if it shall so long remain unredeemed, the commissioners shall, in separate columns in the same book, charge every such tract of land with reasonable county and road tax, according to the quality of the said land, not exceeding in any case the sum of $6 for every hundred acres.

Sect. 6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the right of redemption shall remain in the real owner of such land for 5 years after such sale, and on paying the treasurer of the county all the taxes and costs due thereon at the time of sale, and interest therefor for the same time, and also the taxes which shall have been assessed thereon from year to year after the sale, and interest of each assessment to be counted from the time it ought to have been paid, and on the production of the treasurer's receipt, the commissioners shall, by deed poll, endorsed on the back of the treasurer's deed to them, convey to the person who shall have been the owner of the land at the time of sale, or his legal representative, all the right and title which the county may have acquired under such sale as aforesaid; the monies so received for road taxes shall be paid to supervisors of the roads of the township in which such lands shall lie, on orders to be drawn by the commissioners on the treasurer, to be applied by them in making & repairing the roads and highways in their respective townships.

Sect. 7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the owner of any such land shall not redeem the same within the period aforesaid, it shall thereafter be lawful for the commissioners to sell any such land, by public sale, and make a deed therefor to the purchaser, which shall be available in law, as well against the county as against the person or persons as whose estate the same had been sold, but no tract shall be sold for a sum less than the amount of taxes, costs and interests which shall be due at the time of such sale by the commissioners, & such land shall thereafter be charged by the township assessors in the name of such last purchaser or redeemer, as other lands of equal value may be charged, and shall again be liable to be assessed and sold for taxes, agreeably to this act and the act to which this is a supplement.

Sect. 8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any board of commissioners may direct the treasurer of the proper county to receive in advance, for any term not exceeding six years, a sum which in their estimation shall be equal to the taxes that ought to be imposed on any such land or lands, during the period for which they shall so compound with the owner as aforesaid.

Sect. 9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the form of the deed required by this act to be executed by the treasurer to the commissioners, may be in the following words, viz: "Whereas, a tract of unseated land containing acres, situate township, in the county of surveyed to hath been rated and assessed with divers taxes, to wit, county taxes, dollars, and road taxes, dollars, which remain unpaid, and the treasurer having offered the same for sale, agreeably to law, and no person bidding therefor a sum equal to the amount of taxes due, and the costs of advertising and sale, it therefore became the duty of the commissioners to buy the same which they have accordingly done on the day last past, for the sum of dollars. Now, this indenture witnesseth, that I treasurer of said county, do, for and in consideration of the said sum, grant, bargain, and sell the said tract of land to commissioners of said county, to hold to them and their successors in office forever, subject to the redemption allowed by law. Sect. 10. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of each county wherein a newspaper shall be printed, to cause this act to be published at least 3 times, in at least one newspaper published in said county, and the commissioners of the city and county of Philadelphia, shall also cause the same to be published at least 3 times in two of the newspapers in the city of Philadelphia.

FROM ENGLAND.

Last evening arrived the brig Shakespeare, of London, a cartel, with about 150 released American prisoners, in 41 days from Plymouth, England. She was originally bound to the southward, but the prisoners being principally northern men her course was altered.

Plymouth papers to the 3d of June have been brought in her—they contain some interesting intelligence.

Hostilities had not commenced: but mighty preparations continued with augmented activity; and a general and vindictive war against France was inevitable.

The United States ship Neptune, Capt. Jones, was at Plymouth getting ready for sea, with Messrs. Gallatin & Crawford, passengers.

Another Cartel brig sailed from Plymouth three days before the Shakespeare, bound to Boston.

Spoke Ship United States of Philadelphia, for Europe; and a few days since, a British troop ship, who overhauled the S. and permitted her to proceed.

PLYMOUTH, JUNE 3.

London papers of the 1st say, that Bonaparte remained in Paris. Nothing was said of his departure for the army; and the ceremony of the Champ de Mai. had been further postponed. Two frigates were prepared in France, with secret orders, ready to take off Bonaparte, and his family, in case of extremity.

Insurrections continue in the western and Interior French departments.

The mails between England and France continue four times a week.

All Bonaparte's anxiety appears to be to fortify Paris; and some of the batteries were calculateb to batter down, as well as to defend the city.

Admiral Hotham, has sailed with a squadron to take possession of Martinique and Guadaloupe.

Troops are continually embarking and sailing for the Netherlands.

The British Parliament had rejected the petition from Westminster, for Peace, on account of its indecorous language.

The motion for an Address to the Prince Regent promising the concurrence of the House in effective measures to carry on the war against Bonaparte, was carried in the House of Commons, May 31st, by a majority of 331 to 92. The largest number of members present which has been known a long time.

An expedition consisting of 6,0 glish troops, 15,000 Sicilians, and gion of Calabrians, was to sail from sina against Naples, about the mid May. King Ferdinand himself w accompany the expedition. A F squadron was to co-operate.

The London Courier of May 20, tains an important report, presente a committee of the Ministers at the gress of Vienna on the 12th of Ma which they consider the following tions:

1st. Is the position of Bonaparte, gard to the powers of Europe, afte the first success of his enterprize, the events which have passed since hi rival at Paris?

This question they answer, in the ative, giving the reason for the opini some length.

2. Should the offer to sanction the ty of Paris change the disposition of powers?

In answering this question, they that the powers in treating with Bo parte, would never have granted terms which were yielded to France the treaty of Paris. They answer question, of course, in the negative.

3. Is it necessary to publish a new laration?

They decide that this would be unn essary, on the ground that the reas that dictated the declaration of Ma 13th, remain in full force.

The report was accepted, and sign by the Plenipotentiaries of all the pow who were parties to the treaty of Par viz. Austria, Spain, France, Great B tain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, and Sw den—also Bavaria, Denmark, Hanov Netherlands, Sardinia, Saxony, Sici and Wertemburg.

In Paris the most free circulation given to pamphlets against the gover ment. One, entitled, "Motif du Ve negatif de Louis de Flotian de Kerge sur l'Acte additionell," is sold wit restraint. It contains this passage— "am obliged to protest against the ticle, (67) because I am confi "that the re-establishment of his ty, (the Bourbon) on the throne "only means of giving happiness "Frenchmen." A friend of ours 200 copies of this pamphlet bought one person, avowedly to distribute tis. The "Memoire Justificatif" of Duke of Ragusa, selling in all the sho of the Palais Royal, contains expressio against Bonaparte, such as if in Englan were directed against the Sovereig would condemn the author to prison f years. There are also Journals, as t in their remarks on the government in England.

The whole French army seems to b cantoned about the Sambre and Meus and it is to this important point that th Duke of WELLINGTON and Prince BLU CHER, have turned their attention. Th Cavalry of the Allied Armies is excel lent, and the artillery very numerous. It is asserted that the latter amounts to 7 pieces of cannon.

It was understood in England tha ders had been given to capture all ves sels bearing the tri-colored flag of France. The capture of the Melpomene French frigate, which took place in the Mediter ranean, after an action in which she lo 25 killed and 50 wounded, is presumed to be in consequence of these orders.

The private accounts from the Nether lands, manifest, an increasing anxiety and apprehension as the day of conflict appears to approach. In some of the towns on the frontier, they are not wit out fears that the French may attempt some bold measure before the allies can be in line, and some families are moving their valuables to places more remote from the vicinity of the scene of expected hostilities. In the mean time the inundation has been extended, and proper measures taken for the annoyance of the French, and the protection of the Belgians.

By the Paris papers of the 27th inst. the insurrection in La Vendee appears to have assumed a formidable shape. It extends through all the western departments, as well north as south of the Loire. Of its magnitude, some idea may be formed from the measures which are taken to suppress it. A strong army is marching for that destination, under command of Gen. Lamarque.

The intelligence from Italy in the above papers is conclusive on the subject of Murat. He has been shut up in Ancona with the remains of his shattered army, and his wife & family are on their way to Gæta, which is fortifying as their last assylum.

It is said that the correspondence with Vienna still goes on, and that Napoleon has the constant habit of receiving despatches from the Empress.

The Gazette de France of May 25, estimates the troops of the Allies at from 400 to 500,000.

NEW YORK, JULY 24.

By the arrival of the ship Minerva Smith, capt. Allen, this day at 1 o'clock, from Liverpool, we have received London papers to the 9th June, and Liverpool to the 11th.

Bonaparte was to make his parting review previous to setting out for the army. Soult, his maj. gen. of the Staff, had gone already, and there is no doubt but hostilities would commence immediately.

The French legislature had assembled—their first meeting was a very tumultuous one; an old republican was elected speaker by a vast majority.

LONDON, JUNE 8.

The Paris papers of Sunday have bro't account of the Convocation on Saturday of Bonaparte's two Committees, one of the Chamber of Peers, and the other of the Chamber of Representatives. The latter were employed in appointing Commissions to verify the powers of the Deputies.

While these events are passing at Paris, insurrection gains ground in the West: and after telling us that the insurgents were few and unwilling, it is now confessed in a circular letter from Carnot to the Prefects that "insurrection has broken out in several points of the departments of the West." Moveable columns are therefore about to be sent into the departments beyond the Loire. Gen. Bigarre, commanding at Rennes, announces that 25,000 men have been ordered to repair with all speed into La Vendee. One may judge, therefore, of the strength of the insurgents when we see such a force necessary for one department. Ex-Nobles are ordered to be treated with the greatest rigor; and, in short, the same measures are adopted as during the hottest periods of the Jacobin rule.

But in the absence of force to put down the insurgents, falsehoods are had recourse to, and thus gen. Bigarre dares to assert that he is "authorised to announce that negotiations for peace have been opened with Austria, and that the British army in Belgium is preparing to retire."

The commencement of hostilities—Immediate departure of Bonaparte—Insurrections in the West—Curious discussion in the Legislature, &c.

We had just finished the above article when we received another day's Paris papers, those of Monday last. As the period for the commencement of hostilities approaches, these papers increase in importance. Those of Monday are extremely important.

On Monday Bonaparte was to have a grand review of the troops, and to set off to the army on Tuesday. General Bertrand was to leave Paris on Monday night. "The movements of the troops on the frontier," add these papers, "leave no doubt of the approaching commencement of hostilities." It will commence in a civil war spreading in the interior. Count Lavalette is arrived in all haste at Paris from La Vendee to press for reinforcements. The insurrection has extended inwards to the department of Orne. The public authority have sent away the valuable effects from Laval, the capital, which was expected to be attacked by the insurgents.

There is said to have been an insurrection at Naples on the 14th ult. which our troops put down. We doubt this. Lord Exmouth in his letter of the 21st from Naples mentions nothing of such an event. Murat's arrival in France is no longer insisted upon. We believe he was delivered up to the Allies at Naples and immediately sent off to the Austrian territories.

One of the Paris papers announces that the Austrians have passed Mount Cenis and the Simplon to the number of 70,000 men. Another paper says they have received a letter from Geneva, making no mention of such an event, but it allows that there are great movements of troops towards Piedmont.

Brussels papers to the 7th inst. and a mail from Hamburg arrived this morning. The latter brings no news. The former contain the following articles of importance:

The British and Sicilian troops have landed in Naples from Sicily.

The Emperor of Russia and King of Prussia left Vienna on the 25th. The Emperor of Austria was to set off next day.

EUROPE.

The intelligence brought by the late arrivals from Europe, amply confirms the accounts previously received that all the great continental powers are zealously united against Bonaparte. The stories about the defection of Austria, Sweden, Saxony, &c. turn out to be mere French fabrications. Preparations were continued on an immense scale, and the speedy commencement of hostilities may now be confidently expected. "The almost countless spears of the East, are about to be lifted up, and the sleeping thunders of their cannon will soon awake to carnage."

To every serious and contemplative mind, the events of the few past months afford ample food for reflection. But a short time has elapsed, since the United States were the only power engaged in war, and now, by a singular and astonishing revolution, she alone enjoys the blessings of peace—a few months only have passed, since carnage stalked unrestrained, laying waste our coasts and desolating our frontier; now, are we permitted to enjoy undisturbed tranquility, and exchange the bustle, shouts and clangor of war for the mild employments of civil life. Happy for us, if the adversity we have experienced shall have a salutary effect, in teaching us our true interests.

The New Hampshire newspapers are filled with advertisements for the sale of estates to pay the Direct Tax. In the Hampshire Gazette, of July 11, two thousand six hundred and fourteen estates are advertised by Mr. Collector Catts. The highest tax was 70 dollars 68 cents; the lowest 3 cents.

The blacks taken from the southern states, by the British naval commanders, during the late war, are to be restored to their owners. The United States schr. Nonsuch, is shortly to proceed to Halifax and Jamaica, to bring them home.

The London Gazette of the 6th June, announces the appointment of the Hon. C. BAGOT, as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America.

The Kentucky Gazette says, "Doctor Bedford, a physician of Nashville, states, in a public address to Gen. Coffee, "that the increasing severity of disease threatens the valuable existence" of the distinguished Major General Jackson."

PETERSBURGH, (Virginia) July 21.

DREADFUL CALAMITY!

The gay, the flourishing town of Petersburgh has been visited by a calamity, which, for the suffering—the distress—the wretchedness it has caused, may be truly termed, if language have the power adequately to paint its horrors, unparallelled, overwhelming, dreadful! Great God! to think what an awful change a few short hours have produced! How happy—how cheerful—how gay—how animated—how joyous but a little while since. How wretched—how gloomy—how desponding now! The prosperous merchant or mechanic, content with his lot, pleased with his honest gains, basking in plenty, and revelling in the smiles of friendship and the joys of domestic bliss, idly indulged the flattering anticipation that sorrow and misfortune, long strangers to his bosom, would never twine their murky folds around him, nor mix their venom with the happiness of life. Sweet, though vain, delusive, fatal dream, which destroys, levels with the dust, those fairy edifices itself had made!—Where now, is that long line of buildings, from which the busy multitude would issue, as bees from a hive, in the pursuit of their various avocations? Upon which their proud lords would gaze, and triumphantly boast their solid and substantial wealth—defying the elements, in their worst fury, to deprive them of? Alas! The curling smoke, which wafts their destruction to the heavens—the tumbling walls—the heaps of ashes—the groups of miserable beings, houseless and wretched, tell where they ONCE have stood—a melancholy wreck.

Let these feelings be excused—they spring from the heart! We, too, have had our share of calamity—we too have known what it was to be thrown upon the charity of our friends, without a home to shelter us! Yet our portion was but a drop in the vast ocean of sorrow, whose troubled waves overwhelm and destroy the fondest hopes, and blight the fairest prospects, of our friends & fellow townsmen:

About FIVE HUNDRED HOUSES, principally stores and shops, are calculated to have been destroyed, among them the Market house and Theatre. The loss of property is estimated at THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS!!!

Many lives were lost: their bones are to be seen among the ruins, but it is not known who the sufferers were. Three persons are said to have been blown up in the explosion at the foot of Sycamore, one of them a young man by the name of Myers, late in the employment of Thos: Wallace; 2 or 3 children were burnt to death in the lower part of Bollingbrook, and the bleach burnt bones of one unfortunate victim were to be seen at the back door of the tenement lately occupied as our office. Many more have doubtless perished, for it was with the utmost difficulty that a great number of citizens, animated by a noble zeal to save the property of their friends and neighbors, could be restrained from entering the houses even after matches had been fixed to blow them to atoms.

The citizens generally manifested a disposition to save the town; but all was confusion and dismay from the commencement. No one seemed willing to assume responsibility, or to take a leading part. It was the opinion of many, that if 1 or 2 houses on either side of the building which first took fire on Bollingbrook had been blown up, its ravages would have spread no further. But from the impossibility of procuring a sufficient quantity of powder, from any place nearer than the magazine, this plan was found to be impracticable,

Several Engines appeared upon the ground; but they had as well have been suffered to remain in their houses. They were of no service. Their puny efforts resembling the pouring a drop of water into a lake of unquenchable fire!

No clue has yet been given by which to ascertain the origin of this overwhelming calamity. Several statements are afloat, but we believe they rest upon no certain foundation [Intelligencer.

A CERTAIN CURE

FOR THE RHEUMATISM.

POLYANDRIA,

OR,

The essential Oil of the Cajiput Tree.

A MEDICINE, universally esteemed among the East-Indians, as a safe and certain cure for the Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Epilepsey, &c. restoring vigor after laxations and sprains, giving relief in pains of the head and neck, tooth ache, &c. and since it has been introduced into England (which is of very late date) has been highly recommended, by some of the most eminent physicians in London, as the best and most effectual remedy for the Gout as well as the Rheumatism, by dissolving the coagulated lymph, of which these diseases are formed. In wounded tendons it is of the greatest use by preventing the juice which oozes out of them from fixing. Bruises and sprains it infallibly cures, for it keeps the extravasated lymph and blood perfectly dissolved, and prevents them fixing in the interstices of the vessels till nature either takes them up by the refluent blood, or expels them through the pores of the skin.

Long contracted sprains are removed by it, and it is of the utmost service for the cramp and numbness, stiffness, or weakness of the joints. It is a most efficacious remedy for burns and scalds, extracting the fire very soon, and if used immediately, will entirely prevent them from blistering. It is excellent for a fresh cut. It is of infinite use for the sting of wasps, &c. bite of rattlesnakes, gnats, and other venemous animals and other insects.

The above valuable Medicine, has been but lately introduced into Europe and America in consequence of the Tree from which it is produced, yielding its essential Oil, but in small quantities, and this chiefly monopolized by the government, owing to the great virtue it was found to possess, in the cure of Rheumatisms, &c. the proprietor has divided the original packages, and put it up in smaller bottles made for the purpose. with directions round each bottle, signed in his own hand writing; and in order to demonstrate its vast importance, has thought proper to submit for public inspection, the following out of the numerous cures, which by this valuable Medicine, has been performed since its general use in this country.

Letter from Mr. JAMES WOODMAN, near Norfolk, to Mr. C. MULLIN

July 23, 1813.

DEAR SIR—My son has been more than eight years afflicted with a Rheumatic complaint.—The excessive pain he constantly endured, reduced him to a mere skeleton; and from extreme weakness occasioned even the joints of his legs to turn out of their sockets. A very eminent physician at Norwich, whom I consulted, informed me nothing could be done for him, and the faculty in general considered him beyond the reach of Medicine. He remained in this desperate situation, till the 19th October last, when I was advised to try your "Essential Oil of the Cajiput Tree." Accordingly, by persevering in the use of it, his joints are returned to their proper places, and he is now able to walk 10 miles with the greatest ease. Upwards of fifty respectable persons in this town, have been at my house to see my son, all who knew him, thought it impossible he ever could recover. I am, dear sir, your greatly obliged friend,

JAMES WOODMAN.

Broomsgrove, January 4, 1814.

SIR—I have been violently afflicted with a Rheumatic complaint; even my fingers were so contracted, that I could neither dress or undress myself, or give the least assistance to my family. I have only used one bottle of the Essential Oil of the Cajiput Tree, and by it I am perfectly restored. Yours, &c.

E. HOUGHTON.

December 20, 1813.

SIR—A severe stroke of the palsy, 6 months ago, deprived me of my speech and the use of one side. In this desperate situation, the Oil of the Cajiput Tree, was strongly recommended and I thank GOD, as successfully applied. By perseverance in its use a short time, I was completely restored and continue to enjoy the perfect use of my faculties, although near 80 years of age. Yours, &c. W. FRANCIS,

No. 14, Arabello Row, Pimlico.

☞ Mr. Francis has held a public situation at the Guildhall of the city of Westminster, many years, and is well known to the generality of the respectable inhabitants.

Witherslatch, near Kental, Jan. 13, 1814.

SIR—I beg leave to inform you I have been several months past afflicted with such violent pains in my hips, thighs and legs, and swellings of my joints, that I could not rest day or night; nothing that was applied gave me any relief, till a neighbour informed me of the Oil of the Cajiput Tree, having performed many surprising cures, sent for a bottle to Mr. Mullin, which gave wonderful relief, and by repeating the same two or three times, I am perfectly cured, and am as well as ever I was in my life.

This I have publicly given under my hand, for the good of all sufferers in like circumstances.

Pittsburgh, June 22, 1815.

Messrs. Bosler & Co.

HAVE JUST RECEIVED,

From Lee's Patent and Family Medicine Store, New-York, a fresh supply of the following

Genuine Medicines.

A Sovereign Remedy for Colds, Obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, Sore Throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most Disorders of the Breast and Lungs.

THE celebrity acquired by this Medicine through the United States, for speedily removing coughs, colds, hoarseness, &c. exceeds all former examples. The following recommendation, selected from a very numerous list, will fully confirm what has been said of its unparalelled excellence.

"To H. LEE.

"Being desirous to make public, for the good of others, the excellent qualities of HAMILTON'S ELIXIR, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, I have sent you the following account of the benefit I have received from it, which I hope will induce others to give it a trial. In consequence of a bruise on the breast, received from a fall, my health grew bad, my breath being difficult, and frequently I have had suddenly to rise up in my bed, with all the horrors of immediate suffocation. Add to these, constant pain in my breast, a cough, a great loss of flesh and strength, and you may conceive that my symptoms indicated an approaching consumption. The advice of a most eminent physician was resorted to, and afterwards a second was called in, but without giving me any relief. Another physician who knew me, and the circumstances of my case, advised me to give "Hamilton's Elixir" a trial, saying he had used it in his practice, and always found it to do much good. A bottle was procured, and I found relief before I had taken half of it. I continued to use it, and was soon strong enough to attend to business. On taking cold, some of my former symptoms returned, but are always removed by a dose or two of the Elixir.

"GEORGE BRENER, Jr.

"No. 21, Budd Street, Philadelphia."

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR,

Will prove a valuable acquisition to public speakers, who may be subject to temporary hoarseness and thickness of speech. In long confirmed asthmatic complaints where a cure can scarcely be expected, this medicine affords immediate relief, moderating the fits of coughing, and rendering their recurrence less frequent. On children afflicted with the hooping cough, the like beneficial effects may confidently be expected.

Hamilton's Worm Lozenges.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body: but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of Spirits	Melancholy
Loss of Appetite	Gout in the Stomach
Impurity of Blood	Pains in the Limbs
Hysterical Affections	Relaxations, &c.
Inward Weaknesses

HAMILTON'S

GENUINE ESSENCE & EXTRACT OF MUSTARD.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Rheumatic Gout, Palsy, Lumbago, Numbness, White Swelling, Chilblains, Bruises and Sprains, and pain in the Face and Neck.

This valuable remedy is prepared both in a fluid state and in pills, and thus excellently adapted for external and internal use.

ITCH CURED BY ONCE USING.

LEE'S SOVEREIGN OINTMENT

The proprietor informs those persons and families who are suffering under this disease (against the infection of which no person is safe) that if this ointment is used at night on going to bed, it never fails to perform a cure by the following morning, as thousands who have used it during the last 10 years can testify. The peculiar excellencies of this infallible remedy for the ITCH, over every other, are the certainty of a cure by a single application; the ingredients being so innocent as to be applied with perfect safety to the tenderest infant, and its being not only free from any offensive smell, but equally agreeable with the most pleasant pomatum.

DOCTOR HANDY'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES,

A safe and efficacious medicine for destroying and bringing away WORMS.

MAY be used with safety by children of any age, or as common physic by the most delicate constitution, in any climate, without restraint of diet, or the smallest danger from cold. It may be given with advantage after the small-pox or measles; or as a family medicine, in any case where physic is necessary.—The most frequent seat of worms in the human body, is the intestinal tube; but occasionally they have been found in almost every other part of the body.

Some very extraordinary cases of Worms, of an unusual form and appearance, being brought away by these Lozenges, have been made public in England, where the rapid sale of the medicine has exceeded any thing of the kind ever known before; and has also proved, to a demonstration, its approved superiority, as an athelminthick, to the numerous puffed-up, useless nostrums, which are daily advertised in the newspapers.

A single dose of this valuable medicine has often been known to remove half a pot full of the Teres or Round Worms.

A few doses are generally sufficient to remove the Ascarides, a small white worm, the seat of which is either the stomach or rectum.

Even the Tape Worm, at all times the most difficult to destroy, may, by persevering in the frequent use of this medicine, be totally removed in the course of a few weeks.

To select cases, with the names of people who are not known here, and living at a great distance, would be useless, and take up too much of the readers time. We shall therefore only observe, for the benefit of those who are acquainted with the symptoms of worms, that they are known or suspected to exist by a pain in the stomach, attended with a sudden depression of spirits before eating; at other times the belly is hard, painful and distended with wind—costiveness, head ache, and trembling of the limbs, with a sense of something rising in the throat—pale complexion and emaciated body, with weakness and irregular appetite—convulsive, epileptic or falling fits—pains in the back and side, and frequent itching of the nose, and sometimes of the anus. The above and a long train of afflicting diseases may all be occasioned by worms, which are much oftener the cause of death than is commonly believed.

The above Valuable MEDICINE, is sold, ONLY, by

J. P. & J. W. Skelton.

Imposition and Calumny REFUTED.

WHEREAS, a report has reached us (with it appears has spread far through country) that some time about the first of last, a person calling himself John Jenkinson, son of Isaac Jenkinson, Esquire, of Steubenville, broke open a chest or trunk of Obadiah Peden, at his house at the head of the Long Reach of the Ohio, and stole therefrom sundry articles of value, to wit: 40 dollars in money, a watch, &c. and then fled: but being pursued by said Peden, was apprehended at or near Jeffersonetta in Ohio, (where he still persisted that his name was John Jenkinson, and that he was the son of Isaac Jenkinson, Esquire,) from whence he again made his escape, and has not since been heard of:

We do, therefore, feel it our duty, as neighbors of Mr. Jenkinson and citizens of Steubenville, to declare, that the above report, if it exhibits a most flagrant piece of imposition, and if false, is a most malicious attempt to calumniate.—JOHN JENKINSON, son of Isaac Jenkinson, Esquire, whom it would seem this impostor personated, has not been absent from Steubenville for many months past. To those who are acquainted with Mr. Jenkinson and his family, this report would carry its imposition and falsity upon its face, and require no refutation: But as Mr. Jenkinson is in public business, and his son is just stepping upon the stage of busy life, we deem it an act of justice to declare to the public, that Mr. Jenkinson's character remains free from suspicion, notwithstanding the aforesaid report; and that his son John Jenkinson sustains a reputation without blemish.
